CAMPBELL UNIVERSITY AT Camp Lejeune
A Military Friendly University

You served your country-now your country desires to reward you with the New Post 9/11 GI Bill. Campbell University can help you begin your goal of obtaining your college degree. What have you been doing since retirement or separation from active duty? Have you found that your career goals are hampered by a lack of a college degree? Consider Campbell.

In 1987, Campbell opened the Camp Lejeune campus which offers seven undergraduate majors. Specializing in adult learners, Campbell provides flexible course offerings, a variety of course options, and scheduling to meet the needs of working adults. Whether in the military, retired, or civilian, students find Campbell meets the needs of their busy lives.
